Our Monthly Meetings

Each month, we gather for socializing, a pitch-in dinner, and a presentation on a Scottish topic. Our programs typically include an annual Scotch whisky tasting, a Céilidh (a traditional Gaelic party), and presentations on topics like the clan system, tartans, genealogy, famous Scottish battles, Scottish music and food, as well as two formal dinners, St. Andrew's Dinner and Robert Burns Night.

Regular Meeting Agenda

- Social Time 6:30 PM
- Pitch-in Dinner 7:00 PM
- Program 8-9:00 PM

When and Where

We meet the second Wednesday of each month at the Indianapolis Latvian Community Center, 1008 West 64th St., Indianapolis, IN 46260.

What Else We Do

- Endow the SFI McMath Scholarship for Scottish Gaelic Studies at IUPUI to support Scottish cultural education
- Exhibit at local Scottish, Irish, and International festivals with ancestry reference books, clan and tartan guides, and lots of Scottish history and cultural displays
- Host the annual Indianapolis Scottish Highland Games and Festival

Highland Games & Festival

The Indianapolis Scottish Highland Games & Festival provides people with an opportunity to discover their Scottish roots, to learn about Scottish culture & history, and to witness world-record attempts in traditional Scottish highland sports such as the caber toss and stone put. The Festival raises funds for the Scottish Foundation of Indianapolis McMath Scholarship for Scottish Gaelic Studies at IUPUI.

SFI McMath Scholarship

The mission of the Scottish Society of Indianapolis and its Foundation is education. The SFI McMath Scholarship at IUPUI is funded by the proceeds from our festival. This endowment is the first of its kind in the state of Indiana. When fully funded, it will provide scholarship grants to students wishing to further education in "Gach ni Albanach" (All things Scottish).

Print & Digital Festival Promotion

- Spring, Summer, and Fall editions of Celtic Life International magazine
 - Print readership of almost 700,000
 - Digital distribution of over 200,000
- Active engagement with our Facebook pages
 - 61% of people reached are women, with 42% of them being age 25-54
 - Total reach of over 60,000 the weekend of our 2017 festival

Can we count on you to make this year a success?

We need your help to meet our goals. Please contact us at IndyScot@gmail.com, online at IndyScot.org, or call Steven Johnson, Treasurer, at 317-983-4952. Donation to the scholarship or sponsorship of this year's festival is appreciated.

We look forward to your participation!

Gach ni Albannach

The wail of the bagpipes, the swing of the kilt, and the jubilant dance over crossed swords – if these stir your soul, fill your heart with pride, or just arouse your curiosity, then find out what the Scottish Society of Indianapolis is all about!

Scottish ancestry is not required. All you need is an interest in Scottish history and culture. We are families, singles, working men & women, retirees, students, professionals, historians, re-enactors, and more.

Each month, we gather for socializing, a pitch-in dinner, and a presentation on a Scottish topic.

Join the Scottish Society of Indianapolis and celebrate Scottish Culture, History, Ancestry, and the Impact on our Modern World.
